- 18. Did you know... That this is my last "Did you know..." on behalf of the City of Myrtle Beach? The Friday Fax began in 1998 as an actual facsimile to news media outlets to meet the city's requirements under the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act. During the next 25 years, it grew into this weekly email that provides information to the media and nearly 3,000 others. (We were tempted through the years to change the name to the "Friday Facts," but opted to leave it alone.) The "Did you know..." feature first appeared here in early 2005, 19 years ago, while the "Photos of the Week" started Friday, October 19, 2007.
