

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF HORRY
CITY OF MYRTLE BEACH

A PROCLAMATION HONORING TEMPE HUGHES OEHLER ON THE OCCASION OF HER 90TH BIRTHDAY

WHEREAS, Mrs. Tempe Hughes Oehler, a lifelong resident of Myrtle Beach, is celebrating a most significant event – her 90th birthday – on February 16, 2021; and

WHEREAS, A retired Myrtle Beach High School teacher and former journalist, Tempe Oehler is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of WC-UNC, better known today as UNC-Greensboro; and

WHEREAS, Tempe’s leadership and volunteer roles in the community include: renovation of the Myrtle Beach Train Depot, beautification of the US 501 corridor, the Myrtle Beach Sister Cities Committee (including travel to England and hosting of international guests in her home), the Horry County Board of Architectural Review, the Horry County Historical Society, the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Helping Hand of Myrtle Beach and teaching Sunday School at First Presbyterian Church; and

WHEREAS, Named South Carolina’s “Mother of the Year” in 1990, Tempe was married to the late Fred Oehler for more than 60 years, and she has four children (Te Anne Oehler, Fritz Oehler, Cynthia Jelen and Camille Bondi), five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, from her first job at age 15 at Delta Drug in downtown Myrtle Beach, Tempe Oehler has loved and kept the history of our city and the Grand Strand, freely sharing her knowledge with all;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the City of Myrtle Beach extends official birthday greetings to Tempe Hughes Oehler, one of Myrtle Beach’s first citizens who made significant contributions to the education of our youth and the preservation of our history, on the occasion of her milestone 90th birthday, celebrated with family and friends on Tuesday, February 16, 2021.

Signed and sealed this 16th day of February 2021.

Brenda Bethune

BRENDA BETHUNE, MAYOR

Jennifer Adkins

JENNIFER ADKINS, CITY CLERK