Part 1 – Building and Zoning Permits

Permit fees for building and zoning permits will be calculated based on the per-project fee articulated in Sections 1 and 2 PLUS the administrative fees outlined in Section 3, as applicable. All building permit projects that change the footprint of the primary structure, include an accessory structure > 200 square feet, or add any new impervious surface, including decks, will be issued a building and a zoning permit. Where a zoning fee is indicated in Appendix A, the zoning fees of this fee schedule shall be applied instead. Non-residential projects that involve a change in use or occupancy must receive a zoning permit prior to occupancy regardless of whether a building permit is required.

All building permit applications must submit a non-refundable application fee at time of submission which will be deducted from the total cost of the permit upon issuance. All zoning permits which do not also require a building permit must be paid for in full at time of submission.

Total fees will be calculated to include the applicable building cost + zoning cost + administrative fee + Certificate of Occupancy + UCC Fee, as applicable.
