

Richmond Recreation Committee

Meeting Minutes

February 7, 2023, 6:30 PM

via Zoom

Present: Jeff Konowitch, Chair; Doug Bruce; Andy Lecco.

Jeff opened the meeting at 6:30 pm.

Approval of minutes:

- Minutes from the January 3, 2023 meeting were approved unanimously.

Basketball:

Six athletes in the K-3 group and 11 in the 4-8 group. Tom Forstner is coaching the younger group.

The banquet may be combined with the volleyball program, sometime in March.

Volleyball:

18 athletes with Rick Saupe as coach. With so much interest, the Committee hopes to formalize the program and repeat it next year.

Financials:

$4,152.77 from FY '23

$4,550.28 in the revolving account

New members:

The Committee should continue to seek members to replace inevitable retirements.

Dog-poop clean-up:

No news.

Lacrosse:

Andy reports the goalie training is going very well: 3 goalies with 2 shooters. He is interested in more gym time, perhaps picking up time after the volleyball season ends.

Walking in RCS:

Jeff is continuing to discuss the possibility of opening the school to the community for after-hours walking. Principal Choquette will explain to Superintendent Dillon that this use occurred in years past.

Winter event:

The Committee decided not to attempt a winter event this year.

Budget:

As voted in January, the Committee will seek level funding from the Town for FY 2024.

Town Report:

The Committee had no changes to propose to Jeff's draft for the annual report.

Ping Pong:

The Committee will hold the annual Ping Pong Tourney in April, date to be determined.

Next meeting: March 7, at 6:30 pm.

Minutes prepared by Doug Bruce, 2023/3/6.
