

The Town of Lake Lure defines political signs as "A sign erected by a political candidate, group or agent thereof for the purpose of advertising a candidate or stating a position regarding an issue upon which the voters of the town shall vote." These signs are exempt from the permitting requirements but must meet the following provisions:

Political Signs. Political signs advertising candidates or issues shall be allowed in any zone. However, no such sign shall be placed within any public right-of-way or on any public property or attached to any utility pole or tree. The property owner and the political candidate shall be equally responsible for the proper location, maintenance and removal of political signs. All political signs must be removed within seven calendar days following the election to which the sign pertains. Political signs shall not exceed four square feet in area per display face and two faces per sign.

Please note that all signs must be placed a minimum of 10 feet from the edge of the road if no right-of way exists.
