3. OLD BUSINESS – NEW UPDATES

A. COLUMBUS AVENUE STREETSCAPE is scheduled for a second vote by the City Commission on March 11, 2024. The Bayfront Corridor had not been heard on this project and Chair Carl McGookey called upon the Board to discuss the project and consider a vote to support.

The members offered opinions both in favor of the project and against the project with parking impact providing the greatest concern.

After some discussion, Secretary Zeiher called the question. The Motion was made by Secretary Zeiher and seconded by David Miller to endorse the project on behalf of the Bayfront Corridor Committee and the Board voted in favor of Endorsing the project to the City Commission.

B. WHEELS PARK Aaron Klein reported that both bids had to be rejected as they exceeded the 10% cushion, the result of which was to delay the project beyond the end of summer 2024.
