AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION

Sharon Johnson, via email rolliejohnson@buckeye-express.com, asked why the city is transferring $192,000 worth of grants from Issue 8 to the Chesapeake Tax Incremental Finance (TIF) fund after it was certified the money would be in the Issue 8 economic development fund. She asked how many grants are expected to be transferred into the TIF and said she is not in favor of this just so grants can be issued.

REGULAR AGENDA

ITEM #1 - Submitted by Matt Lasko, Chief Development Officer

AMENDMENT TO GRANT AGREEMENT WITH RENAISSANCE TOO, LLC FOR 125 EAST WATER STREET (CHANGE OF FUNDING SOURCE ONLY)

Budgetary Information: The city will be responsible for providing a total of $90,000 in grant proceeds from the capital projects fund which will be financed through the issuance of urban renewal notes or bonds. These notes or bonds will use the proceeds from the Chesapeake Tax Incremental Finance fund to pay such debt service.

ORDINANCE NO. 20-076: It is requested an ordinance be passed authorizing and approving a first amendment to the grant agreement with Renaissance Too, LLC, in relation to the property located at 125 East Water Street; and declaring that this ordinance shall take immediate effect in accordance with Section 14 of the city charter.

Upon motion of Dave Waddington and second of Naomi Twine, the commission voted to pass this ordinance under suspension of the rules and in full accordance with Section 14 of the city charter.

Discussion: Matt Lasko said the City Commission passed a grant agreement in 2018 and another in 2019 which, collectively, were for $192,500 to fund substantial renovations to 125 and 131 East Water Street. These projects are still under construction and slated for completion by the end of this year. One of the things we do is look for flexibility in our funding sources given the budget deficit and the issues we are facing. The original funding source was the economic development capital fund which is less restrictive and can be used throughout the entire geography of the city by swapping these out with Chesapeake TIF funds. TIF funds are restrictive both where they can be used geographically and by what types of things they can fund, namely subsidizing private development and secondarily, public infrastructure and public utilities. Additionally, the commission had previously approved a total of $1.8 million in Chesapeake TIF funds for private, subsidized development ($1.3 million for the Feick Building and $500,000 for the Cooke and Huntley Buildings). We subsequently still committed this for the Feick Building, but have paid out only $150,000 for Cooke; the other $150,000 for the project has been rescinded by the commission. With this $350,000 freed up, we are looking to move some of these funds for the Renaissance Too, LLC projects. This will allow the economic fund to be replenished by $192,500 which could alternately be used city-wide for economic development functions or to assist with the budget deficit which we did not know we would be facing. Dennis Murray said every institution in America is looking to conserve cash and he was delighted when he saw staff take this position to reserve cash while still maintaining commitments made so we have options later in the year as things unfold. If the deficit is as large as we fear it may be, they will have the ability to spend money on police and fire services and other necessary things we need to keep the city running. Wes Poole said the two projects where money was freed up are still ongoing and we still are going to pay this money; the Cooke Building has not gone away so we are spending this money twice. It is not necessary to do this today because Renaissance Too will not need this money until the project is completed at the end of the year. It is foolish to commit today to paying interest (which this amounts to) on money we are supposedly investing for development. Until we identify what we are going to do or have a projection of expenditures for the entire year, the idea of freeing up money cannot be done as we have not yet prioritized projects and we do not know how much money we are going to have. He suggests leaving this alone. One month ago, we changed a project where we are supposedly going to review getting bonds for road projects. It is now 30 days out and not one word has been said about this. He is not interested in all of this flexibility since we do not necessarily know what our situation is and this is reckless and unnecessary. We could do this in November when this project is about to be over. Dick Brady said we do not have the ability to look into a crystal ball and answer the question as to how many additional projects will apply for TIF dollars. Matt Lasko said there would be roughly about $160,000 of funding no longer committed with the rescinding of the Cooke Building agreement, but ultimately, the commission decides what to do with these funds.

AMENDMENT TO GRANT AGREEMENT WITH RENAISSANCE TOO, LLC FOR 131 EAST WATER STREET (CHANGE OF FUNDING SOURCE ONLY)

Budgetary Information: The city will be responsible for providing a total of $102,500 in grant proceeds from the capital projects fund which will be financed through the issuance of urban renewal notes or bonds. These notes or bonds will use the proceeds from the Chesapeake Tax Incremental Finance fund to pay such debt service.

ORDINANCE NO. 20-077: It is requested an ordinance be passed authorizing and approving a first amendment to the grant agreement with Renaissance Too, LLC in relation to the property located at 131 East Water Street; and declaring that this ordinance shall take immediate effect in accordance with Section 14 of the city charter.

Upon motion of Mike Meinzer and second of Dave Waddington, the commission voted to pass this ordinance under suspension of the rules and in full accordance with Section 14 of the city charter.

Discussion: Wes Poole asked how much money is currently in this fund. Matt Lasko said he does not believe there are any funds left in this account which are uncommitted for projects, but we do have funds in the account which are committed. Michelle Reeder said the exact balance in this account as of the end of April was $147,205. Wes Poole said we talked during the presentation about doing this because it would free up funds from the Cooke and Feick projects. The money for this project is already sequestered or set aside so the funds which this will “free up” are already accounted for. The wording sounds like we are spending this money twice and is why it does not work for him. He recognizes the money is already there and we have talked about funds we have released and made available for past projects which did not go through, but these are two separate pots of money which already exist. Dennis Murray said instead of spending the money right now out of an operating fund, we are going to preserve the money to use later on and will use bond funding instead. We will sell bonds when we have record-low general obligation debt and with record-low interest rates.

Upon motion of Dave Waddington and second of Mike Meinzer, the Commission voted to approve this resolution under suspension of the rules and in accordance with Section 14 of the city charter.

Discussion: Wes Poole said five minutes ago we were saving money and now we are spending $124,000 on a bathroom for a park; this really does not work for him.

ISSUANCE & SALE OF BONDS TO CIVISTA BANK FOR CEDAR POINT SPORTS PARK PROJECT

Budgetary Information: The city will borrow, through the issuance/sale of economic development revenue bonds, $2,310,000. Semi-annually, the city is to make debt service payments to Civista from the bond fund utilizing non-tax revenues (in this case, minimum service payment revenues received from Cedar Point Park, LLC).

ORDINANCE NO. 20-079: It is requested an ordinance be passed authorizing the issuance and sale of economic development revenue bonds of the city under Section 14, Article VIII of the Ohio Constitution and Chapter 165 of the Ohio Revised Code to pay costs of a "project" as defined in Section 165.01 of the Ohio Revised Code, for the purpose of creating or preserving jobs and employment opportunities and improving the economic welfare of the city and its residents and the State of Ohio; providing for the pledge for that purpose of certain non-tax revenues; establishing certain funds of the city; approving related documents; and declaring an emergency.

Upon motion of Mike Meinzer and second of Naomi Twine, the Commission voted to approve this ordinance under suspension of the rules and in accordance with Section 14 of the city charter.

Discussion: Trevor Hayberger said he would like to confirm this is being done under Section 13 of the U.S. Constitution and Section 14 of the City of Sandusky's Charter. Dave Waddington said he asked the Law Director and is able to vote on this item. Dennis Murray said he will abstain from voting due to his relationship with Civista Bank.

- The May 12 Economic Development Incentive Committee (EDIC) meeting is canceled as are all future EDIC meetings until further notice.
- Phase I of the Water Street Lofts 13-unit townhome project is near completion which includes the first of two, five-unit townhome buildings. The first residents will move in during late May and carry on into June. The developer is tentatively planning to begin foundation work on Phase II in late June or early July, which will include the second of the two, five-unit townhome buildings.
- The city recently took part in a conference call with representatives of the Cooke Building regarding the upcoming demolition. The purpose of the call was to review the proposed timeline of activities and begin to understand potential logistical needs of the contractors and impacts on traffic and adjacent property owners. Contractors are currently finishing up work to shore up the shared walls between the main Cooke building and those buildings to the north and east. Once completed, the contractors will begin strategically separating the Cooke Building from the attached structures and mass demolition and site clearance will occur. Mass demolition is currently anticipated to occur in early June and will take one week to complete. After demolition, contractors will need approximately three to four weeks to move all debris from the site. The city, contractors and owners will be working on a press release in the near future along with logistical maps showing staging areas, ingress and egress to the site and street closures. The owners, along with their architectural team, are continuing to put the final touches on proposed plans and drawings for the eventual new building that will be developed on-site.

The President declared the motion passed.

- Eric Wobser said to allow for social distancing as required by the COVID-19 pandemic, staff would like to give businesses an opportunity to utilize expanded dining in public/private areas. This includes researching whether it would be prudent for the city to temporarily close streets to vehicular traffic for expanded outdoor dining. Establishments will potentially be able to close streets and utilize sidewalks, park space and adjacent parking spaces. In the interest of businesses within the community over the next few days, outdoor dining is permitted by the Governor as of Friday, May 15 and restaurants will be able to open indoors to the public, with restrictions, on May 21. Many cities throughout the state have been looking to restrict access to enclose streets so they can use some additional right-of-way space in order to expand patios. This will allow restaurants to serve a larger number of people while still meeting social distancing guidelines. Our goal is to get something in place and we want to reach out to impacted stakeholders in the community. We want to be able to move quickly as the governor's announcement gave a relatively short amount of time. We are trying to have as much flexibility as possible for small businesses who are struggling during these last few months and get them to serve as many customers as possible. Blake Harris said he would like to show support for the idea of expanding outdoor dining areas for many of our small local businesses. This will certainly help with the bottom line for many of our small businesses and also get people out and about. Many people are trying to find some sense of normalcy and thinks this would certainly provide a step in the right direction to help achieve this. Dick Brady said the city wants to encourage our local restauranteurs and we will bend over backwards to make any system they put into place work. Dennis Murray said this will also be up to the Erie County Health Department to decide and this is not really, as an initial matter, the city's responsibility to make this determination. This is not just focused on businesses; he is reading in various municipal publications it is a time for cities to be flexible in supporting businesses in different ways. He remembers there were all sorts of neighborhood restaurants and bakeries while growing up and thinks we are likely to see a decentralization and may see some people setting up some shops in our neighborhoods and we want to support that. Staff should be thinking about how it is we can make temporary changes which might transition into making our neighborhoods more vibrant and to purchase what they need in a much smaller and less congested setting. He thinks the virus will be with us for quite some time and we may end up having a big surge again and we will be right back where we were.
- The Planning Commission meeting for May 27 is scheduled for 4:30 p.m.
- The Board of Zoning Appeals meeting for May 21 has been canceled.
- The Landmark Commission meeting for May 20 is scheduled for 4:30 p.m.

- The Sandusky Recreation Department purchased chess boards at a deep discount to give to city residents to learn and play the game during the COVID-19 pandemic. Over 70 boards were distributed through the drive-thru meal program at 222 Meigs Street. Sandusky Recreation provided five instructional videos throughout the week on their Facebook page. Several chess sets are still available and residents interested in obtaining one can call Recreation Superintendent Jason Werling at 419.627.833, or via email: jwerling@ci.sandusky.oh.us.

- The Sandusky Recreation Department has opened an online survey for city residents during the COVID-19 pandemic. The survey asks residents what their likelihood of participating in interest-based programming and/or a revised summer park program would be during the COVID-19 pandemic. The survey can be found at <https://arcg.is/ODPnaO> and on the Recreation Department's Facebook and Twitter pages through the end of the week.
- Dave Waddington confirmed there will be a City Commission Work Session on May 18 at 6 p.m. Eric Wobser said he is planning to host the meeting to discuss the city's financials with the commissioners.

OLD BUSINESS

Dave Waddington said we have had three litter clean-ups so far and have averaged about eight residents at each one to help in our park areas. He thanked them and said we got off to a good start already this year and have a couple more scheduled.

NEW BUSINESS

Dave Waddington said the world faces a unique and complex challenge with the COVID-19 pandemic which is disrupting our lives and confidence. We have all faced setbacks and we all know what it is like to feel hopeless, but tonight he challenges everyone to remain positive and optimistic. We will rise above this monster virus and our eyes will clear. He cannot wait to get back to our pace of normal life. Without optimism or hope, he asked what we really have.

Dave Waddington said after reading several publications with our Governor, he is confused with Ohio's cuts to Medicare. We have close to two years in a Rainy Day fund in Ohio and he (Governor DeWine) could not even squeeze out 20% to help with public schools in Ohio. He will be sending a letter about this and is not happy with how this vital funding was chopped, especially if we are going to be in this situation for a year or two; our schools need to get up and running.

Upon motion of Dennis Murray and second of Naomi Twine, the commission voted to hold an Executive Session regarding employment of personnel, Commission Clerk. At 5:48 p.m., the President announced a recess of the regular session.

At 6:13 p.m., upon motion of Dave Waddington and second of Wes Poole, the commission voted to return to open session. The President declared the motion passed.

Upon motion of Blake Harris and second of Dave Waddington, the commission voted to hire McKenzie Spriggs as the new Commission Clerk with four weeks of vacation and an annual salary of $56,000, starting as early as tomorrow (May 12) and/or when Kelly Kresser would consider the best start date.

Discussion: Dennis Murray said Kelly Kresser has served the city very well and McKenzie Spriggs, who we know, brings a very high level of intelligence and energy to the position. He is confident she will grow in the job and continue to represent the city and this commission very well. It is gratuitous she is here and available and with the cutbacks we had to make, but she will be a great Clerk going forward. Wes Poole said he is certain McKenzie will be a good employee, but believes jobs should be bid and we should not just be giving them out. This is an important job and the city is an equal opportunity employer with much of our funding coming from state and federal grants which requires we do this; this process has eroded over time. The job needs to be filled and as soon as the commission was notified, we could have opened it up for bids so it would be a fair practice. Mike Meinzer said it would be fair to say Wes Poole left the Executive Session where much of this discussion took place. Wes Poole said he was very clear that hiring people because they fit in is not criteria for filling a position.

Roll call on the motion: Yays: Blake Harris, Dennis Murray, Dick Brady, Naomi Twine, Mike Meinzer and Dave Waddington, 6. Nays: Wes Poole, 1.

Dick Brady welcomed McKenzie Spriggs as our new Commission Clerk and said she will start as early as tomorrow or perhaps as late as Monday depending on Kelly Kresser's thoughts as to a start date.

ADJOURNMENT

Upon motion of Mike Meinzer and second of Dave Waddington, the commission voted to adjourn at 6:17 p.m. The President declared the motion passed.
