There was discussion regarding tax revenue and business development. There was discussion about business development and support that the EDC provides, California Competes and the San Juan Bautista Opportunity Zone.

Subcommittees provided brief updates:

Economic Development Outreach: Darlene Boyd stated that she attended a California Main Street meeting about place-based economic development. Darlene has requested the CA Main Street newsletter and other information that she will make available to the committee. Darlene also summarized information from MBEP regarding funding available for transportation and climate change. The subcommittee is looking for a guide regarding how to be more involved with the CEDS program.

Luke Krebs that he is working to establish a website and information repository for the EDCAC. Brian Foucht cautioned that the Committee is actually a government entity rather than community organization and full transparency would necessitate use of the City's website and the City as the repository for all committee related material, rather than a separate, private storage area for the subcommittee. Open meeting laws and the Brown Act would discourage the formation of private website not accessible to the general public and not administered by the City.

Lizz Sanchez-Turner stated that the Workforce Development Board should serve as an advisor to the EDCAC.

Business Development and Retention: Patricia Bains stated the Committee is starting to contact businesses in the community to educate businesses regarding resources and to establish integrated communication between businesses and with the EDCAC.

Community Relations and Resources: Kim Calame summarized that the committee is discussing community engagement and recreation, events identify recreation user groups, business collaborative groups and desire to connect with the Safety Committee. Teresa Lavagnino summarized the subcommittee's effort to link school, state parks and the City to link recreation and cultural resources and opportunities for interconnectivity. Brian Foucht stated that he would work to establish a joint meeting with the Safety Committee.

Brian Foucht suggested that subcommittees provide written reports for the August meeting and there was consensus that could be accomplished.

Brian Foucht suggested that Committee members encourage members of the community to join the EDCAC and contact staff regarding any interest.

There was discussion regarding whether subcommittees can move around and join other subcommittees. Brian Foucht requested the members who want to move between committees to work through staff and the EDCAC.

There was discussion that the San Juan Bautista business groups get together and there was consensus that the two groups should work jointly together and with the EDCAC to benefit of the community as a whole.

The meeting was adjourned by consensus at 7:10 PM.
