

Donald P. Reynolds, Jr., City of Salinas Assistant Public Works Director

Don Reynolds brings to San Juan Bautista more than 30-years' experience in local government. Don is from Ventura County, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Master in Public Administration degree from CSUN. Don spent the first twelve years out of college working for Moorpark, a small rural community that incorporated in 1984. For the past sixteen years, he has served a variety of positions with the City of Salinas that include human resources, risk management, community development, and redevelopment. For the past seven years, Don has served as the Salinas Assistant Public Works Director, and one year ago served as the Acting Public Works Director. Don is currently active in the International City Managers Association and Municipal Managers Association of Northern California. He is married with two boys ages 16 and 13, and they live in the unincorporated area of Monterey County.
