NARRATIVE:

The South Burlington Police are investigating an attempted assault that occurred on October 20th, 2023 at approximately 5:30 PM in the parking garage of the University Mall.

A 16-year-old female reported that while walking to her car she noticed a male in the garage near a truck. The male began to follow the female on foot and attempted to grab her. The female screamed for help and fled toward her car. The female was assisted by another person in the garage, the male suspect was not seen again.

Investigating officers have collected ambient video evidence. Officers are interested in identifying the owner of the Dodge Ram truck depicted here:

Additionally, officers would like to talk to the person who came to the female's aid. Anyone with information about this truck or incident are urged to contact the South Burlington Police at (802) 846-4111.
