NARRATIVE:

At 11:28pm on January 17, 2023, the South Burlington Police Department received a call regarding a robbery of cash and cigarettes from the Jolly convenience store, located at 977 Shelburne Road, during which a handgun was displayed toward the clerk. Responding officers met with the store clerk, who was unharmed, and with assistance of the Burlington and UVM Police Departments saturated the vicinity in an effort to locate the subject. The perpetrator, who was not immediately located, was described as a white male, approximately 5'6" with a slim build, wearing a black hooded sweatshirt, black pants and a black mask, black gloves and black shoes. Investigators from the South Burlington Police Department are actively investigating this incident. Surveillance video captures will be forthcoming.

Anyone who witnessed this event or may have any information is asked to contact the South Burlington Police Department.
