NARRATIVE:

On June 11th, 2023 at approximately 7:41 PM South Burlington Police officers responded to the area of Dorset Street and Kennedy Drive for a reported suspicious event. An 18-year-old female reported that she was being followed by two vehicles while she was running in the area.

The female reported that she was running on Grandview Drive when she perceived a male subject on a moped following her. The female further said that the male on the moped appeared to be in communication with another subject in a grey truck. The male subject on the moped appeared to take actions to stop the runner, pulling across her path of travel into a parking lot. The female subject called 911 and as she was on the phone the moped and truck left the area travelling south on Dorset Street from Grandview Drive.

The female reported that the moped operator was a white male, wearing a hat (no helmet), and short sleeve shirt. The operator of the truck was not described.

This incident is under active investigation – anyone who witnessed this event is asked to call the South Burlington Police Department at (802) 846-4111.
