NARRATIVE:

On June 28th, 2023 at approximately 1:58 PM the South Burlington Police responded to the area of 345 Farrell Street for a reported carjacking. Investigating officers learned that three subjects were in the parking garage in their 2021 Nissan Altima sedan. These people were approached by a black male suspect who was brandishing a semiautomatic pistol. The suspect made demands of the three vehicle occupants and eventually took control of the Nissan. The suspect fled the area in the Nissan.

Officers were able to identify a source of video in the area. It appears that the suspect arrived in a late model gray BMW sedan which was occupied by at least one other person. The suspect appears to have intentionally approached the Nissan in question. The suspect was last seen fleeing the parking garage in the Nissan – the BMW sedan left the area at the same time.

The Nissan in question is black in color and displays Vermont registration KKY 428. Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the South Burlington Police at (802) 846-4111.
