Committee Reports

1. Membership: Currently there are 275 members.

2. Programs and Special Events:

Octoberfest

Linda Sullivan reminded everyone Octoberfest is October 11th and everyone needs to work. There will be two long tables and servers on both sides of the tables. Palonia catering, Home Instead popcorn and Culver's ice cream. Volunteers should report at 10:00 a.m. to help with set up. Enter through the kitchen door. Eddie Karosa is the entertainment. 102 people have responded. No early admissions of guests will be allowed. There will be 20 gift cards given as door prizes.

Marcie Hecht asked if anything was done about the $300.00 fee Zion is charging us. Linda Sullivan said absolutely nothing was done about the fee even though she called and complained and some members belong to the church and the Senior Center. That is what they charge. Linda said we are looking into other venues for next year, a location that holds at least 100 people. Grant Steeve's church has a banquet room and the fee is $200.00 but it is smaller. The American Legion charges $400.00.

Bob Hayes asked what organization SSC is collecting donations for?

Linda Sullivan stated that we will be collecting for PAWS, Animal Welfare and Together We Cope. All clothing, housewares and food will be donated to Together We Cope and any monetary donations will go to the animals. If we get a decent amount of cash we can divide it between the three.

Vicki Hayes inquired about having a jar to collect for PAWS. Linda Sullivan stated there will be a jar at the front check-in table for monetary donations. Julie will be in charge of the cash and the volunteers. Would like to have one more person collecting money.

Bob Hayes will purchase Dunkin Donuts coffee for the kitchen staff/volunteers. Bob asked Rob for a list of village officials that will be attending. The mayor will speak and Grant Steeve will do the prayer.

Mike Cutrano stated that Andy Ashmus has volunteers coming from Together We Cope. Mike asked if Grant or Gordon can help Andy pack up and bring all items over to Zion. Andy will be purchasing the pop and ice.
