NEW BUSINESS:

1. Next Outing/Trip

Senior Center Assistant Roxane Tyssen stated the next trip is September 21st to Drury Lane for Murder on the Orient Express. Cost is $80.00 per person for this outing which includes transportation, ticket to the show and lunch at the Drury Lane. Still have a few openings if anyone is interested. Looking for another staff member to chaperone.

Yahtzee Tournament begins September 20th. A movie will be in the morning with the tournament in the afternoon.

Changes are being made to the Senior Bus schedule. Still being worked on. Also looking into a van for cost savings and driver options.

Chairman Bob Hayes comments on the next month's newsletter being colorful. Really liked the colors and it made the information stand out.

Bookmobile - fourth Thursday of the month starting September 22nd.

2. Oktoberfest

Oktoberfest is set for October 12th at St. Stephens in conjunction with our sponsor, Young at Heart. Contact person is Theresa Gamino, President of the Young at Heart organization. Roxane Tyssen is looking into Winston's Market, Chef Klaus and Polonia for the menu. Andy Ashmus will need help loading/unloading trailer.

Set-up 10:30, lunch at noon. Need to clean/sanitize tables before and after. St. Stephens will set up tables and chairs. Volunteers will set the tables, wrap silverware, serve food. Tuesday will be loading and unloading, time to be determined. Chairman Bob Hayes would like more heavy duty plasticware.

Motion made by Vicki Hayes, seconded by Andy Ashmus to have the next meeting of the Senior Services Commission at the Senior Center. This meeting will be held at the center for this meeting only. Chairman Bob Hayes stated the motion carries.

Roxane Tyssen distributed Oktoberfest invitation samples for review. [More Oktoberfest details discussed.]
