

Park District to host rescheduled fireworks display tonight

Issued: July 5, 2018

Due to rain, the Tinley Park Park District was forced to cancel its annual Fourth of July fireworks display yesterday and will instead hold it tonight at dusk at McCarthy Park, 16801 S. 80th Ave., Tinley Park.

The evening will feature live music from the Hat Guys from 7 to 9:15 p.m. The fireworks display will follow the concert around 9:30 p.m. Popcorn and beverages will be sold; those who have unused food tickets from yesterday will be able to redeem them today.
