Man charged after allegedly attacking real estate agent

Stanley Keller, 50, of Hazel Crest, was charged Sunday with aggravated battery, attempted aggravated criminal sexual assault and unlawful use of a weapon by a felon after allegedly using a stun gun on a female realtor during an open-house showing of a residence April 7 in the 6700 block of West 181st Street.

Police said the realtor was able to overcome the effects of the stun gun and exit the residence. Police were subsequently called to the scene, and the defendant was placed under arrest.
