

Get spooked at this year's Boo Bash

Issued: Oct. 18, 2019

It's time to shake off those cobwebs and pull your favorite costume out of the closet! The Downtown Tinley Boo Bash returns from noon to 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 27 at the Oak Park Avenue train station, 6700 South St., Tinley Park. It's sure to be a spooky good time!

Activities will include trick-or-treating through business booths, a mad scientist, a special appearance by Dracula, alien slime, dance lessons and performances, DJ entertainment, an inflatable haunted maze, a story time with the Tinley Park Public Library, a costume contest and much, much more! Food and beverages will be sold.

Visit the Special Events page on the Village website for more information on this and other great upcoming chances for fun in Tinley Park!
