

Warming shelter now open

Issued: Jan. 8, 2021

Construction of the new warming shelter on the north side of the tracks at the Oak Park Avenue train station is complete, and the facility is now open for public use. The Village hired F.H. Paschen to construct the shelter, which also includes storage space for the Oak Park Avenue station and its vendor, Cavallini's

