

Tinley home wins ABC7's Light Fight

Posted: Dec. 17, 2021

A Tinley Park family recently took home bragging rights by winning ABC7's Great Chicago Light Fight 2021!

The home at 7414 W. 162nd Place was decorated by homeowner Scott O'Connor over the course of several weeks and utilizes more than 80,000 lights. This is the second win for Scott, as his home also won Best Use of Music in the Village's recent Holiday House Decorating Contest.

ABC7 asked viewers to submit videos of their homes for consideration and then vote on their favorites. The O'Connor home beat out four other finalists from Schaumburg, Mount Prospect, Carol Stream and Naperville to take the crown. Scott and his family appeared on ABC7 the morning of Dec. 17 to accept the award.

"I just want to congratulate the O'Connor family for bringing joy and the holiday spirit to our residents," Tinley Park Mayor Michael Glotz said. "It's a wonderful addition to the many beautifully decorated homes across Tinley Park."

Scott is asking visitors to his display to make donations to Together We Cope, a Tinley Park nonprofit organization that provides resources to families in temporary crisis, enabling them to stay in their homes.

A video of the interview with the O'Connors, Mayor Glotz and Village Manager Pat Carr is now playing on the Village's YouTube page and on Tinley Park Television.

