Swing for the sky at this year's Tinley Park Golf Show

When it comes to golf, it doesn't matter if you consistently score high or always seem to get stuck in those pesky sand traps. For those who play it, golf is less of a hobby and more a way of life. But where do golf aficionados go when the weather turns bitter cold and snow blankets the green?

No, the answer isn't "insane" – it's the Tinley Park Golf Show, which runs from noon to 7 p.m. Friday, Feb. 4; 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 5; and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 6 at the Tinley Park Convention Center, 18451 Convention Center Drive, Tinley Park, IL.

Golf fans can stop pining for spring and come out for a true golfing experience featuring a driving range demo area with manufacturer representatives from Callaway, Wilson, Tour Edge, Cleveland, Cobra and Mizuno.

After browsing aisles of newly released equipment and apparel from the top retailers in the Chicago area, golfers can enjoy a live telecast of the Pebble Beach Pro-Am at the famous 19th Hole Bar and Lounge. Golfers also can compete in skills challenges for Longest Drive in both the Ladies and Men's Divisions and Long Putt, with daily winners for all challenges.

The top 10 female and male winners in Longest Drive will be able to compete for a $500 cash prize at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 6. There will also be a top 10 finisher playoff for the Long Putt at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 6. Other fun activities will include raffles and the chance to mingle with other golf enthusiasts yearning for sunnier skies!
