

Minutes of The
City of Waterloo Complete Streets Advisory Committee Meeting
July 26, 2022

The Meeting of the City of Waterloo Complete Streets Advisory Committee was called to order at 1:30 pm July 26, 2022, by Chairperson Cass.

Roll Call: Members present: Felicia Cass, Paul Huting, Wayne Castle, Jessica Rucker, John Dornoff, Kyle Durant, Oumie Ceesay, and Aric Schroeder.

Members absent were: Anne Marie Kofta, David Sturch, Ray Feuss, Matt Schindel, Sandi Greco, and Greg Young.

Other attendees: Aldina Dautovic – INRCOG

It was moved by Rucker and seconded by Schroeder to approve the minutes of the June 28, 2022 meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

1. Review and Vote on top policy priority and develop a sub-committee

- Cass had everyone present vote on their priority project again.
- It appears that “adopt pedestrian through zones” on sidewalks in business districts (parklets) will be the top vote getter.

2. Upcoming Planning Commission Agenda Review

- Schroeder went over the PZ agenda
- Discussion on the Schoitz development and sidewalks to which is was pointed out that the committee did recommend sidewalks along Acadia Street which was put in as a condition of approval. Kimball and Ridgeway Avenues have sidewalks along their frontages.

3. Other Project Status Updates

- Ridgeway Avenue
 - Resurfacing of Ridgeway Avenue from Ansborough Avenue to Kimball Avenue is underway.
- Pools at Gates and Byrnes Parks.
 - Huting went over the current plans to replace the two pools at each park.
 - Currently has $13 million of the $16 to $18 million cost of redeveloping the pool areas.
 - Discussion on how to connect the two pools including the difficulty of getting a trail to Byrnes and the possibility of a transit bus connection.
- Marina
 - Construction on the marina is underway and will hopefully be completed before the hockey season starts.
 - Discussion on how the marina came about and what the city would like to see happen with it.
- Trails
 - Dautovic showed a spot that is along the Cedar River that has no railings and sits right across the river. However, it is not designated as a trail.
