WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT WYANDOTTE!

1. OUR HISTORIC DOWNTOWN

Incorporated in 1867, the City of Wyandotte is often described as the "Heart of Downriver." The site where Wyandotte sits today was, in the 1700s, a village for the Native American tribe known as the Wyandot, a part of the Huron Nation. A waterfront community, Wyandotte is rich in history and is known for its distinctive architecture, charming downtown district and variety of cultural offerings.

2. FIND ART IN WYANDOTTE!

Wyandotte is well known for its numerous community events, festivals, and our annual Wyandotte Street Art Fair. The event traces its history to 1961 when a handful of artists from the Acanthus Art Society exhibited their work in front of a local downtown business. From these humble beginnings, the Wyandotte Street Art Fair has grown to be one of the largest and best attended fairs in the state. ART is one of the earliest creative images representing the Fair. ART's likeness was rediscovered on an early Street Art Fair poster in the archival collections of the Wyandotte Museums. Originally a stylized line drawing, ART represents a true piece of Wyandotte history! When ART first made his debut in Wyandotte, it was 1964 and the Street Fair was only three years old. ART is fun, funky, and creative, encapsulating the spirit of our Fair. Every year, ART gets a new interpretation by a regional artist so stay tuned for what he will look like this year!

3. SPLISH, SPLASH

Wyandotte is a waterfront community. Get out there and boat, kayak, or fish! Whatever you choose to do here in Wyandotte, make sure to have fun while doing it!

4. CITY OF FESTIVALS!

Wyandotte is known for our many events that take place throughout the year: Wyandotte Third Fridays, The Independence Day Parade, Outdoor Movie Nights and much more. Visit our Downtown and have a fun and festive time!

A BIT OF WYANDOTTE HISTORY...

The area that became the City of Wyandotte was first settled in 1732 by a branch of the Huron Tribe known as the Wyandots. The Wyandots first arrived from Ontario, Canada when their French allies founded Detroit. The Wyandots followed the Detroit River 10 miles to the south and founded a village named Maquaqua.

The first permanent non-native settler in the area was Major John Biddle. He was an officer in the U.S. Army during the War of 1812 and a mayor of the City of Detroit. His land was located in the area of Biddle and Vinewood Avenues. He named his farm "The Wyandotte" after his neighbors to the south. When other settlers came to the area they started to refer to the area as Wyandotte. It is from Biddle's farm that the City of Wyandotte derives its name.

December 12, 1854 marks the date of the founding of the Village of Wyandotte, which coincides with the founding of Wyandotte's first industry, Eureka Iron Works. On May 26, 1865, Eureka Iron Works was the first mill in the United States to produce steel using the Bessemer Process. This method was the foundation of the industrial revolution and the key to making high-quality steel in large quantities. Unfortunately, Eureka Iron Works suffered a boiler explosion and fire in 1888, from which it never recovered.

The Village of Wyandotte officially became the City of Wyandotte on April 8, 1867. A few years after that event, in 1871, the Wyandotte Shipyards started operation. The shipyards produced many hulls, including the famous and speedy passenger boat, the Tashmoo, and the Columbia, one of the Boblo boats. The Shipyard remained in operation until 1922.

In the early 1890s, a man named Captain J.B. Ford traveled to Wyandotte to investigate the reports of salt deposits found here. Captain Ford was interested in the salt to produce soda ash, a chemical necessary in the manufacture of plate glass. Having found salt in sufficient quality and quantity, Ford created the Michigan Alkali Company to process the chemicals he needed. In addition, he started the J.B. Ford Company to further process the soda ash into various soaps and cleansers sold commercially. These and other chemical plants have formed a lasting industry in Wyandotte that continues to this day. In 1969, the chemical giant B.A.S.F. purchased the Michigan Alkali Company and the J.B. Ford Company (which merged in the 1930s) when they went public with their stock. B.A.S.F. continues operations in Wyandotte to this day.

As the other communities of southern suburban Detroit have grown around it, Wyandotte's riverfront and other charms continually draw people from all over the world. Over the years, Wyandotte has mirrored the rest of the country with several waves of immigrant populations moving into the area seeking jobs and community. Much of the city's culture is influenced by the German, Irish, Italian, and Polish immigrants.

The City has several festivals during the year, including the Independence Day Parade, the Heritage Event Series (highlighting culture and history), the Wyandotte Street Art Fair (the second largest in the state), and Skip Clack's Fishing Derby. Also found in the city are many art studios, galleries and boutiques. There have been many local visual and performing arts groups in Wyandotte since its inception. Currently, the Acanthus Art Society is the oldest, having been established in 1932. The City also owns a cultural campus, which includes the Wyandotte Museums. The museums consist of three homes restored to a period-appropriate look.

Wyandotte, which is located 10 miles south of Detroit along the Detroit River, is a community of about 28,000 residents. With a municipally owned water and power plant, the City has the capacity to provide all needed services to businesses and residents.

As the City moves forward, it remains committed to preserving the past and celebrating the unique culture and history that make up the City of Wyandotte.

Welcome to

September 2018 will mark 7 years in business for 3152 Studio, located in downtown Wyandotte at 3152 Biddle Ave. The staff bring their individual experiences and skills to the business. They have maintained an extensive clientele for over 12 years, with clients traveling from as far as Farmington Hills and Fraser. "We take pride in practicing thorough sanitation and educating our clients on the services they are receiving," states Cassandra.

3152 Studio is a beauty spa and nail salon, specializing in gel nails and soak-off manicures featuring Shellac and OPI products. The spa also offers facials, body waxing, spray tans, make-up application and NovaLash eyelash extensions. NovaLash continues to be the leader in the field of eyelash extensions and is committed to providing safe, beautiful, flawless eyelash extensions to enhance any woman's natural beauty. Armed with considerable research and a commitment to product superiority, NovaLash has developed award-winning adhesives and cosmetics including Platinum Bond Adhesive and LashLiner. "NovaLash holds up great, even with me working on the line at Chrysler," says Tracey, a Wyandotte resident who has been a 3152 Studio client for over 3 years. Say goodbye to needing mascara! Except for the monthly "fill", NovaLash is low maintenance and gives you that "mascara look" at all times. "NovaLash is perfect for my busy schedule and the little time I have to get ready," states Dr. Jessica McCracken, a longtime 3152 Studio client.

In 2013, the owners of 3152 Studio made the decision to create their own line of lotions, scrubs and lip balms. They wanted a paraben-free and alcohol-free product to retail and use in-house. "The idea was to accommodate clients with sensitivity, as well as offer a higher-quality product at a comparable price," states Tricia. Clients with severe dry skin and eczema have had wonderful results using these products.

Aside from their exclusive line of lotions and scrubs, the studio offers a wide variety of boutique items including unique jewelry pieces, make-up and women's accessories. They are open Tuesday-Saturday.

PUBLIC ART

◀ The Gwen Frostic Sculpture sits in Frostic Field, located just behind the Copeland Center at 4th and Mulberry Street. The sculpture was given to the city of Wyandotte by Western Michigan University and was dedicated on April 26, 2009. WMU has honored our city and memorialized Ms. Frostic with the gift of this fabulous sculpture that melds Gwen's metal work with her delicate prints of Michigan's flora and fauna.

The Wyandots – A Family Tribute was dedicated to the city of Wyandotte in 2000. The sculpture sits in BASF Park, near Wyandotte Shores Golf Course. The sculpture was created by Michael Duffy Kramer and is made of bronze. The sculpture is modeled after a Native American family, and depicts items that are essential to their survival: corn, beans, squash, as well as tobacco, sage, sweet grass and cedar. ▶

◀ The Wyandot Totem Pole was carved by Gordon Watkins and is constructed of cedar. It was donated by the Wyandotte Savings Bank to commemorate the city's 100th anniversary in 1971. The totem pole sits at the southwest corner of Eureka and Biddle Avenues near the fountain. A large turtle sits atop the pole that represents Chief Walk-in-the-Water family totem. Five other figures tell the story of the Wyandot that settled in this area: an Iroquois warrior, the crest of Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac, a beaver, a whitefish and the figure of a Wyandot clutching a canoe paddle.

Merrill Lynch Bull and Wyandotte Bear were both created by artist Keith Coleman in 2005 and 2006, respectively. The Bull sits on the corner of Biddle Avenue and Oak Street. The bear stands on the corner of Eureka and Fifth Street, in front of Wyandotte Roosevelt High School. They were created from salvaged water heater cores, and have a weathered rust finish. ▶

World War I Memorial is located on Superior Boulevard just east of Biddle Avenue and was dedicated to the city in 1923. The boulder and bronze tablet lists the names of those who lost their lives in World War I. Two cannons also sit on the site of the memorial.

The Veterans Memorial is constructed of black granite and flanked by flags. The Wyandotte Veterans Memorial Committee spearheaded the construction of the memorial located in Bishop Park. It was designed by Mike Miller, the winner of a design competition held for the project.

The Purple Heart Memorial was designed and sculpted by Isadore DeBiasi of River Rouge. It was originally dedicated by Michigan Governor Harry Kelly in 1943. The statue is a testament to the sacrifice of Michigan servicemen and women. Wyandotte has the distinguished honor of being the first city in the country to which the National Military Order of the Purple Heart commissioned and donated a monument of this type. The Wyandotte Beatification Commission and local veterans worked together to raise funds to bronze the Purple Heart statue from 2007 to 2010.

Count Casimir Pulaski was cast in concrete and dedicated in 1938. It was shipped to the New York World's Fair in 1939, and remained there until the Detroit Institute of Arts acquired it. It was then given to Wyandotte to be placed in Pulaski Park, which is located on 12th Street south of Walnut. The statue was re-cast in bronze in 1991 and rededicated to the city.

The Wyandotte Vietnam Veterans Memorial is located at the east end of Superior Boulevard at Van Alstyne.

The Looking Forward Statue was donated as a Sesquicentennial gift to the city of Wyandotte. The bronze, created by John Pappas of Ypsilanti, was installed in 2000. The sculpture is located in BASF Waterfront Park.

TELECOMMUNICATION SERVICES

The Wyandotte Municipal Services telecommunications utility was created by local residents in 1981 when voters demonstrated their confidence in the department's ability by approving an ordinance to place the implementation, construction and operation of the new cable television system under the auspices of the Municipal Services department.

In 1983, the department installed the cable infrastructure throughout the city and began offering basic cable television services. Since 1983 we have developed the limited basic cable television system into a full broadband telecommunications system offering a wide selection of cable television services from Digital to High Definition programming to full feature, internet connected, advanced cable box service as well as Turbo High Speed Broadband Internet & Digital Phone services. In 1999, the cable infrastructure was rebuilt and upgrades to existing services, enhancements and additional service offerings are continually being introduced. Today the telecommunications utility serves approximately 5,700 cable television subscribers, 5,600 high-speed internet subscribers and 1,000 Digital Phone subscribers with annual revenues of approximately $10 million dollars.

Wyandotte Municipal Services telecommunications system (Wyandotte Cable) offers competitive television programming selections, Vu-It TiVo advanced cable box services, Turbo High Speed internet packages and residential and business digital phone service with unlimited local & long distance calling, all with state-of-the-art technology and outstanding customer service.

The utility contributes five percent of its gross revenue to the city's general fund and supports a cable television studio where public access, local access and government programming is produced almost exclusively in High Definition format. The cable telecommunications system was rebuilt in 1999. It now consists of over 3,000 strand miles of fiber-optic lines and 72 miles of coaxial cable.

Technology and advanced equipment upgrades are continually being implemented. In 2016-17, Wyandotte Cable continued work on its systems, driving fiber deeper into our neighborhoods. It installed more fiber optic nodes and upgraded via new equipment, and installations are now in all digital Gig E & ASI signal formats. This allows for the addition of our new Vu-It TiVo advanced cable box service, many more HD (High Definition) channels, online access to a variety video programming services and the ability to upgrade internet speeds even more significantly. Look for those upgrades to continue with even faster internet speeds and greater bandwidth capacity, direct access to online video programming content, additional television programming and other service enhancements that our customers have come to expect.

WATER DEPARTMENT

In early 1889, local residents created the Wyandotte Municipal Water Utility to provide fire protection and have a convenient safe source of drinking water. Today, the municipal water utility serves over 12,000 consumers, has annual revenues of over $3.5 million and sells over 1.5 billion gallons of water annually.

Wyandotte is the only downriver community that owns and operates a potable water filtration plant. The Wyandotte Municipal Water Plant can produce up to 15 million gallons of water per day. The community's water source is the Detroit River and the treatment process consists of:

- Screening or removing debris
- Adding alum for coagulation of suspended particles
- Adding chlorine for disinfection
- Adding phosphate for stabilization
- Removing all suspended particles through filtration
- Adding fluoride to prevent tooth decay

Our water distribution system consists of 110 miles of water mains ranging from 4 inches to 30 inches in diameter. Fire protection is provided by over 850 fire hydrants located throughout the community. The municipal water system has a 500,000-gallon elevated storage tank (water tower) and 4.5 million gallons of ground level storage for peak demand periods such as fighting fires or other emergencies.

ELECTRIC DEPARTMENT

The Wyandotte Electric Light Company was incorporated on September 19, 1889, for the purpose of manufacturing and supplying electricity for light, heat and power.

In 1892, local residents voted to create a community-owned municipal electric utility, which initially provided only street lighting. In 1896, the municipal electric utility began serving retail consumers and for a number of years the municipal electric utility and the Wyandotte Electric Light Company competed locally for consumers.

Today, Wyandotte's municipal electric utility is one of 41 public power systems in Michigan, and one of nearly 2,000 public power systems in the United States. It serves over 12,000 consumers.

Wyandotte Municipal Services's electric department encompasses the power plant production of electricity and the Transmission and Distribution (T&D) side of bringing electricity to residents and businesses located in Wyandotte.

Our municipal electric system has three sources of supply to provide reliable, affordable service. Our electric distribution system consists of 69,000-volt transmission lines and 13,200-volt and 4,800-volt distribution lines. The municipal electric utility also installs, maintains and provides electricity for streetlights throughout the community.

Wyandotte, having its own electric distribution and generation facilities, gives our residents a great advantage when power outages occur. The time to bring our power back online is considerably less than in neighboring communities served by other power utilities. Reliability is our number one priority. All you have to do is ask any Wyandotte citizen about the reliability of Wyandotte electric and you'll generally get the response that there is no better provider of electric services.

Wyandotte Street Art Fair

The city of Wyandotte is known for many things, and one of them is the Wyandotte Street Art Fair. The Wyandotte Street Art Fair (WSAF) is conveniently located in Downtown Wyandotte, the heart of the city and reaches over 200,000 people for the four-day event, which will take place July 11-14, 2018. With summer right around the corner, we want to share some history and fun facts about the fair to get you excited to Find ART in Wyandotte at the 57th Annual Wyandotte Street Art Fair!

The events history traces back to 1961 with a handful of artists from the Acanthus Art Society who exhibited their work in front of local downtown businesses. From these humble beginnings, the Wyandotte Street Art Fair (WSAF) has grown to be one of the largest and best attended fairs in the state. The artist portion of the fair is by far the most exciting. The WSAF features fine artists as well as emerging artists, artist demonstrations, children's art, the Clock Tower Craft Show along First Street and a garden art section to inspire the green thumb in everyone. We guarantee there will be something for everyone!

ART! In 2009, staff found an early fair poster dating back to 1964 with a stylized line drawing in the Wyandotte Museums archival collections, that was lovingly named "ART". ART represents a true piece of Wyandotte's history, as he is one of the earliest creative images representing our Fair. His mid-century modern aesthetic is fun, funky and creative, and has been reimagined by a handful of artists since his discovery years ago. ART has been many different mediums and themes, including a circus ring leader, a super hero flying through the streets of Downtown Wyandotte spreading the word on the fair, and just recently received a pet pup, Pigment! Stay tuned for the reveal of this year's ART!

REDESIGN YOUR SMILE

Wyandotte's Dr. Mark Glovis has solutions to 'permanent' dental problems

Certain dental problems have long been considered "permanent," which basically means that if they've happened to you, you're stuck with them.

Dr. Mark S. Glovis doesn't think that's true. Dr. Glovis practices a full scope of general and cosmetic dentistry, with expertise ranging from porcelain veneers to dental implants, crowns and bridges. Not only does this make it possible for Dr. Glovis to correct a wide variety of so-called "permanent" cosmetic dental problems, he can literally redesign your smile, adding beauty and function.

How?

With services like teeth whitening, cosmetically pleasing dental crowns, dental bonding and porcelain veneers. Dr. Glovis also performs procedures like dental implants, bone grafting – as well as specialized services like socket preservation, which helps prevent jaw deformities in the event a tooth has to be removed. Dr. Glovis is a clinical evaluator for The Dental Advisor, a dental trade newsletter, and reviews journal articles before publication in a leading dental implant journal. He has presented lectures on implantology at the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Glovis is a 1985 graduate of University of Detroit Dental School, and has been in private practice in Wyandotte, Michigan, since 1985. ACCURATE RELIABLE LOCAL

Locally owned and operated - Downriver Resident for 35 years

Dinner's Here!

Downriver Food Express brings it home

With two young children, Nicole and Andre Esters value home food delivery a lot. But when your delivery choices are limited to pizza and maybe a sandwich place or two, how often can you really take advantage of it?

Nicole Esters is the type of person who likes to do something about problems like that, so she convinced her husband to join her in establishing Downriver Food Express.

A franchise of Five Star Food Express, Downriver Food Express opened in December and partners with 34 different downriver restaurants, providing customers with delivery service for each establishment. They are always working to add new partner restaurants and hope to expand their coverage area in the future.

Customers place their orders with Downriver Food Express, which takes it from there by placing the order with the restaurant, picking up the food and bringing it to the customer's home.

"We are getting some really positive feedback from our customers and everyone has been really happy with our service" Esters said. "When the customers are placing the order they're typically quoted an hour wait time, but the food has been getting to them faster than the quoted time frame."

Customers in Allen Park, Lincoln Park, Taylor, Southgate, Woodhaven, Wyandotte, Riverview, Trenton, Flat Rock and Brownstown Township can use the service by visiting their website at <https://www.downriver.express>, downloading their app (Five Star Food Express in the app store) or by calling (734) 530-4470.

As part of their Grand Opening in December, Downriver Food Express wanted to find away to give back to the community and partnered up with Mimi's Mission (a local non-profit), which received a $1,000 donation as a result of its Facebook likes.

"Our drivers are great, really personable, and the whole experience has been phenomenal so far," Esters said.

RICH IN HISTORY

The Wyandotte Museum preserves local culture & helps bring history to life.

The site of this elegant Queen Anne-style mansion, located at 2610 Biddle Avenue, has an important and prominent place in the history of our city long before the current house was built in 1896. The land was originally the homestead of Major John Biddle. Registrar of the Government Land Office, Mayor of Detroit, and trustee of the Michigan University, John Biddle was the first notable American of European descent in the area. Downriver appealed to Biddle, who thought he could live the life of a gentleman farmer.

Wyandotte was farmland and wooded areas at the time when Biddle bought the land in 1818 and built his farm (or, summer estate as he referred to it) on the corner of Biddle and Vinewood. He wanted it to be a retreat from the hustle and bustle of Detroit city life. He named his estate “Wyandotte.” The Georgian-style home was completed in 1835. From 1836 to 1848 Biddle lived here in Wyandotte, but ended up selling his estate to the Eureka Iron Company. When the city was established, West Jefferson was named Biddle in John Biddle’s honor, in respect to his reputation and the location of his early estate. His home was moved when construction began on the Ford-MacNichol project.

Completed in 1896, the Ford-MacNichol home was built by Capt. John Baptiste Ford and his son Edward as a wedding gift for Edward’s daughter, Laura, and her new husband, George Pope MacNichol. The Fords owned and operated the J.B. Ford and Michigan Alkali Companies - pioneers of the early chemical industry in Wyandotte.

The Ford-MacNichols lived in the home for seven years before they moved to Toledo to be with the rest of their family. At that time, the house was purchased by Jeremiah Drennan, a local lawyer. The Drennan Family lived here for 60 years, making them the longest private owners. In the 1970s Yvonne Latta purchased the home and saved it from demolition. She was instrumental in the restoration of the structure, doing much of the work herself. In 1977, the home was purchased by the City with a grant from the Michigan History Division of the Department of State, along with funds provided by the Wyandotte Historical Society, local businesses, civic organizations, and individuals.

The Ford-MacNichol House is a textbook example of the Queen Anne architectural style of the late 19th century, with influences of the classical revival. Designed by the famed Detroit architectural firm Malcomson and Higginbotham (also responsible for the Old Main building on the campus of Wayne State University and the Ford-Bacon House in Wyandotte), great detail and forethought was taken into consideration in the design and construction. This is evidenced by the tower with witch's hat roof, projecting gables, wrap-around porch and elaborate decorative trim.

Much of the interior is also original. The square footage of the home is 6,600 square feet with 32 rooms and 11 closets. It was considered to be the height of technology at the time with indoor plumbing, a coal furnace with gravity duct system, speaking tubes, and both gas and electric lighting. There are 6 fireplaces, 65 windows and 53 doors! This elaborate and inspiring building represents the grandeur and promise of Wyandotte's past and future. The Ford-MacNichol House is on the State and National Register of Historic Places.

Guided tours of the Ford-MacNichol Home are conducted Thursday through Sunday, 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM, from March through December.

JOIN OUR CORPS OF VOLUNTEERS!

"We make a living by what we do, but we make a life by what we give."

— Winston Churchill

The benefits of volunteering one's personal time or resources to the betterment of a community are well documented. The intrinsic value of making a difference, learning and developing new skills, meeting new people, making network connections, or even simply building your resume and gaining work experience, the reasons for volunteering are as varied as the individual seeking to give their time. The Wyandotte Museums offers many avenues by which citizens are able to give back to their community.

Those interested in volunteering at the Wyandotte Museums have a wide variety of opportunities to choose from; there's something for everyone! For instance, volunteers could assist with museum operations, which include tasks such as light cleaning, garden and grounds care, painting, and even carpentry. Those interested in a behind-the-scenes view of the museum may enjoy collections care, as they assist staff with the care and inventory of our archives and 3D collections. Volunteers in our docent program are outgoing people who lead tours of the museum and educate visitors on our unique heritage.

And finally, those who volunteer at our special events engage the public through a range of signature fundraisers throughout the year.

Volunteer staff can work both regular schedules and occasional hours. Send us an email to museum@wyan.org or give us a call at 734.324.7284 and we can discuss your interests and our needs. We're excited to work with you to care for and promote the museum!

HOST YOUR EVENT WITH US!

Weddings in Victorian Splendor

The Wyandotte Museum provides an alternative site for small weddings and is very flexible to meet your needs. Ceremonies can take place in the parlor, foyer, or the porch, depending on the size of your party. We also offer a dressing room for the bride and her party in our second floor Master Bedroom.

Due to special exhibits installed at the museum for the Halloween and Christmas Holiday seasons, the museum is not available for wedding rentals from mid-September through mid-January. However, the museum is available for photo sessions year-round, and the special holiday exhibits prove an even more unique backdrop for your photos. We advise you to visit the museum prior to booking, so staff can discuss and show you how the exhibits are arranged during that time.

Frontier Style along the Waterfront

The rustic cabin standing in Wyandotte's historic Bishop Park was built in 1942 to serve as a meeting place for the city's senior citizens. This building was the headquarters for the Wyandotte Centennial in 1954. In 1991, following a petition drive to save the historic structure, the city turned the building over to the Cultural and Historical Commission.

The Old Timer's Log Cabin is used today for families celebrating birthdays, graduations, reunions, and other festive events. It can also be rented out to various non-profits, including scout groups, and religious and cultural organizations. The Cabin is available for rental May 1 through October 31 each year.

RESEARCH & LEARN

One of the ways that the Wyandotte Museums seeks to enrich the city of Wyandotte and its citizens is by providing access to the Museums' collection of local history archives.

Research into genealogy, historic buildings, businesses, and many other topics can be conducted at the Burns Home. Visitors can request information on specific topics, which they will then be able to view in our public reading room.

Our collection strengths are in the late 19th to early 20th century domestic items, industrial artifacts from Wyandotte's chemical boom years of 1880 to 1950, and photography documenting the city's development since the 1860s.

At this time, access to the archives is scheduled by appointment. Please call 734.324.7284 to establish a time and date, along with your topic of inquiry.

NO SLIDING, NO CURSING, NO GLOVES

Learn about the history of America's Pastime with Wyandotte's Vintage Base Ball Team.

Who are the Stars?

The Wyandotte Stars are a group of volunteers, young and old, from all walks of life, who put on vintage base ball uniforms each weekend. When attending a match, you can take a close look at this phenomenon called "Vintage Base Ball," where it's not just reenacting, it's playing a very real, competitive, nine-inning game of base ball, with no gloves! It's a "Gentleman's Game," using only 19th century rules, equipment, behavior, and language, all played on pastoral ball fields throughout the region.

The Stars are just one team in this national pursuit that is loved and played with grace, skill, and guile by thousands of passionate practitioners all across the country.

A program of the Wyandotte Museums, the Wyandotte Stars are proud to share how base ball helped shape young America of the 19th century and became America's pastime.

The Wyandotte Stars come together, sharing passion for the history of the game of base ball. We are always pleasantly discovering the long-lasting impact we have on our fellow teams, our supportive community, each other and most rewarding, the young and old who enjoy the "vintage" game with us. We'd like you to join us for some of the fun. Hitch up the wagon, load up the kids, and come on down to a match or two this season. Discover baseball all over again!

Club History

The original Wyandotte Star Club was formed in the mid-19th century in Wyandotte, Michigan. In a letter and score card dated October 5, 1867, the Star Club won a sweeping victory against the Monitor Club of Taylor, beating them 85 to 15!

The original Wyandotte Stars scorecard is on display at the Wyandotte Museum. This intriguing document is one of a handful of early baseball records in southeastern Michigan, and is the inspiration for the present reformed team.

September 8, 2007 was the inaugural match of the new Wyandotte Stars, 140 years after the original team took the field.

Rules

The game will be played by the rules of the 1860s as found in Haney's Base Ball Book of Reference for 1867 by Henry Chadwick. Haney's is the first official base ball rule book from 1867, and covers all aspects of pitching, batting, and fielding with full instructions for umpires and scorers.

Henry Chadwick, the sport's first great journalist, was a leading figure in the development of the game. His manual includes not just rules, but also advice on how to form and manage clubs, as well as hints on how to field, pitch, and bat. For the adventurous enthusiast, there are even several pages on how to play base ball on the ice!

See the Stars!

Visit www.wyandottemuseums.org for our full season schedule. All Home Matches begin at 2:00 PM at Memorial Field at Pennsylvania Avenue and 23rd Street in Wyandotte, Michigan.

WYANDOTTE THIRD FRIDAY

The city of Wyandotte is known as the City of Festivals and that is due to events like the Wyandotte Street Art Fair, and also the Wyandotte Third Friday events! The Special Events Office now organizes these entertaining and joyful events and we are thrilled to invite you to join us Downtown Wyandotte this year!

The Downtown Development Authority (DDA) fully sponsors the Wyandotte Third Fridays. Without the DDA the events would not be possible.

THANK YOU, DDA!

One of the many goals for the Wyandotte Third Friday events is to promote the businesses in the Downtown Development Authority District. We have many wonderful restaurants; retail shops and we encourage patrons of the events to stop in and shop!

Another goal for the 2018 Wyandotte Third Fridays is to spread the love to all areas of Downtown. We plan to have events on the grassy lot at Elm and First, the many large parking lots along Biddle, Arrowhead Pavilion at Sycamore and Biddle and our main street, Biddle Avenue! We want to incorporate and showcase all of the businesses in the many blocks of the DDA district.

You will see some new event themes in 2018 as well as the well-loved themes that have been going on for years. For an entire event listing, please check out the Event Listing in this magazine or our website at www.wyandotte.net for updated information on the event details.

Just remember you're making a lifestyle change, and don't let yourself get frustrated. Keeping that good attitude is a solid key to success.

Good health is holistic – involving the whole person. That means you want to find solutions and strategies that will help you mentally, physically, emotionally and spiritually.

So, look for ways to treat your body better, of course, but don't forget your mind and your spirit. Keeping stress under control and doing things you enjoy will help make you feel good inside and out.

Think baby steps, not giant leaps and bounds. It's tempting when you've made a resolution to do everything at once and seek instant results. After all, we live in an instant-gratification society. But if you try that, you're more inclined to end up frustrated and burned out. You might even give up – and nobody wants that! Slow and steady wins this race.

And, of course, check with your doctor before starting any new health regimen. So, a few tips:

For diet and exercise:

Start keeping a food diary to get a feel for how much and what you're eating in a day – you might be surprised.

Begin removing the junk food from your house – the less that's there, the less you'll eat.

Start each day with a 10-minute walk – and work up to 30 minutes of physical activity a day. If it's too nasty to go outside, start with a series of stretches to wake up and get your body moving.

Make small substitutions – they really work. Have an apple or a yogurt instead of a bag of chips for that mid-morning snack, and try having a carbonated water instead of a soda once a day.

Enjoy a meatless meal for dinner once a week – it's good for you, and you'll save money, too.

For stress and self-care:

Write it down. Some people find writing down what they're stressed about helps keep it in perspective. Others find keeping a gratitude journal helps them remember all the things going right in their life.

Don't go it alone. Social support from friends and family can help you get through stressful times, and being part of a social network also can boost your feelings of self-worth.

Listen to music. Slow-paced instrumental music can induce the relaxation response by helping lower blood pressure and heart rate, as well as stress hormones. Nature sounds also can be very calming. This is why they're often incorporated into relaxation and meditation music.

As the River Rears By...

The Waterfront Turns 2, and Adds Something New

As Wyandotte's Waterfront Restaurant and Lounge approaches its second anniversary in May, it's never too early to take what's new and make it . . . even newer. That's what loyal Waterfront patrons can expect in 2018, as owners Jason and Amanda D'Herin seek to build on the success they've enjoyed since opening in 2016.

They've got a lot that's good to build on. Situated along the Detroit River in the old Pier 500 location at 507 Biddle, Amanda D'Herin describes the aura as "industrial chic, yet warm and inviting."

It's proven to be a popular spot not only for a meal or a drink, but also for gatherings like wedding receptions, baby showers, birthday parties and the like.

Popular dishes like lake perch and fish 'n' chips have proven to be staples of the Waterfront menu, while the Boursin chicken is so popular (with its accompanying spinach and rice pilaf), Amanda D'Herin said she craves it herself after being out of town for a day or two.

But there's always the opportunity to make things fresh, so this year the Waterfront plans to update its menu to include more mix-and-match offerings involving different sources and proteins. That will allow customers the chance to match their favorite sauces with options like grilled chicken, salmon, perch, mahi mahi or whichever combination seems appealing.

Of course, you could always just go for the Lobster Crostini or the New York Strip. There's really no wrong way to do it, especially during the summer when you're enjoying the patio and overlooking the river, or during the not-quite-so-warm times of the year when you can sit by one of the firepits.

The Waterfront has also added a lounge area, which is available for people who don't necessarily want to have a full meal but don't mind the idea of relaxing by the fire with a drink.

By the way, live music is part of the Waterfront scene as well, as live bands frequently play on Fridays and Saturdays. Phoenix Theory kicked off the 2018 season of live entertainment at the Waterfront, and the lineup continues to be impressive as the year rolls on.

If you're interested in a private event at the Waterfront, you'll be able to use a special section that's cordoned off by ficus trees designed to match the restaurant's overall décor. But don't wait for a special event. Get down to the Waterfront soon and enjoy this distinctive environment that's all Wyandotte, and is sure to be the setting for a memorable evening.

Auto Care Downriver Trusts

Mike K's has earned customers' confidence for more than 20 years

Auto repair professionals rely on their reputations, and that's why Mike K's has become such a downriver institution. With more than 20 years in Wyandotte, Mike K's has earned the confidence and trust of its customers with consistent excellence in all aspects of auto maintenance – from routine dealer recommended maintenance to complete diagnostics and full-service auto repair.

Few put it better than Wyandotte resident Barbara O., who wrote to Mike K's after an exceptional service experience: "This is the best auto repair shop around. I brought my car in for repair. When working on my car, I was kept informed. Upon picking the car up, Kevin took the time to explain what work was done. My car is running excellent.

No more problems. Mike K called to check on how car was running. Thank you, Mike and Kevin!!!!"

That type of service comes from only one thing – dedication to customer needs. Whether it's an engine problem or a simple patch for a tire, Mike K's is happy to help and is always ready to do everything possible to make sure customers are back on the road quickly and safely.

Visit Mike K's at 1332 Ford Avenue in Wyandotte for all your auto maintenance needs.

The Quilted Heart & more

The Quilted Heart & More opened in January of 2010. As an avid quilter for over 30 years, I decided it was time to take my knowledge and experience to the next level having realized "there is no better time than the present". The Quilted Heart is a longarm quilting service operating out of a quaint shop in Historic Downtown Wyandotte, Michigan.

We believe that the greatest inspirations come from the heart and there is no better medium to express them with than fabric. Quilts are not only warm and beautiful blankets to be handed down through the generations; they are storybooks, which tell the tales of great love, dedication and compassion that cannot be expressed simply with words.

For my longarm quilting, I work on a Gammill® Optimum Plus machine equipped with Statler Stitcher®, a computer software program that can stitch almost any design. The Gammill®, Statler Stitcher® combination can quilt an intricate pattern onto a king-size quilt in a matter of hours.

You can visit The Quilted Heart & More storefront to see this dynamic machine in action and observe first hand the beautiful results of first rate longarm quilting.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

THESE ARE ONLY A FEW OF THE MANY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON OUR WEBSITE: WYANDOTTE.NET PLEASE REVIEW THE WEBSITES FRONT DESK TAB FOR MORE INFO ABOUT EACH DEPARTMENT LISTED.

ANIMAL CONTROL

Q: What do I do if I find or have lost a cat or dog?

A: Downriver Central Animal Control is the intake shelter and picks up all lost domestic animals. They are located at 14300 Reaume Pkwy Southgate MI 48195 2 blocks west of the Southgate Post office off DIX between Northline and Eureka. Domesticated animals will be picked up by our department or can be dropped off. You may call us at 734-246-1328*9 Requests after 5:00 pm may be directed to the Wyandotte Police Department non-emergency number at 734-324-4438. The Wyandotte Adoption Center. 1170 Grove has been turned into the adoption center for the DCAC. They do not accept stray animals. You may also visit our Facebook page. www.facebook.com/dcacashelter and post a picture of your dog and pictures of incoming animals are posted there also.

Q: What do I do if a squirrel, opossum, raccoon, or other animal gets into my home?

A: Traps are available to capture non-domesticated animals that are causing property damage. Please contact the Downriver Central Animal Control at 734-246-1328 or 734-324-4438 (after 5:00 pm) to obtain a trap. Most traps will need to be picked up at the office. Once the animal is successfully trapped, you must contact Animal Control, pick up the trapped animal. Traps are rented out Mon-Wed. There is a $20 deposit with a $5 rental fee in which you will receive your deposit back within 5 days $1 a day after 5 days. Animal Control will not pick up cages that are privately owned.

ASSESSORS OFFICE

Q: Property values in my neighborhood have been decreasing, will my property valuation be decreasing as well?

A: Unfortunately, there isn't a yes or no answer to that question. If you've owned your property for a significant amount of time, more than likely your State Equalized Value (SEV) far exceeds your Taxable Value. If this is the case, a decrease in valuation, caused by a slow real estate market, will be reflected in the SEV. The taxable value is required by the Michigan Constitution to increase each year by the rate of inflation or 5%, whichever is lower. In the case of a longtime property owner, the SEV could decrease, while the Taxable Value will continue to increase.

Q: If the SEV decreases, will I pay more or less in property taxes?

A: Your property taxes are based on the Taxable Value, rather than the SEV. So, in the previous scenario you would pay more in taxes even though your SEV decreased.

Q: Why isn't my new assessment 50% of my purchase price?

The simple answer is that it is against the law. MCL 211.27 states that the purchase price is no longer the presumptive True Cash Value of a property. The assessment may be close to 50% of the purchase price but it is determined by investigating the other sales in the area of the property and all of the SEV are set using that sales study.

Q: Can I appeal my assessment, and when?

After you receive the Change of Assessment notice you may file a petition to make an appointment. Please see Board of Reviews FAQ's and Common Assessment Terms on our website for more information.

CITY HALL

Q: When are City Offices open?

A: City offices are open 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday, with the exception of the following holidays: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King Day, President's Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, General and Presidential Election Days, Presidential Election Day, Thanksgiving Day, The day after Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, and New Year's Eve.

Q: Where is City Hall located?

A: Wyandotte City Hall is located at 3200 Biddle Avenue, Wyandotte, Michigan 48192

CLERKS OFFICE

A Detroit Tradition... A Wyandotte Staple

No visit to downtown is complete without enjoying the Sanders Shop

As Detroit's revival continues to blossom, it's fitting that the Sanders Ice Cream Soda and Fine Confectionery Shop was a staple of Detroit's downtown district during its heyday. Over the years, the brand has seen its fair share of economic uncertainties. Today, Sanders continues to enjoy a revival of its own and is proud to represent all things Detroit and the families that grew up with the tradition. Since 2002, the Sanders brand has launched 9 new locations in Michigan with plans to grow in the near future.

Opened in 2006, Sanders has become a staple of downtown Wyandotte – a highlight of the Downriver communities for its residents and visitors alike. The quaint shop pays homage to its predecessors with a rejuvenated 1950's old-fashioned soda fountain, long granite countertops and ice cream bar complete with swiveling bar stools. The complete ice cream soda fountain menu offers classic favorites, which include old-fashioned ice cream sodas, milkshakes, malts, sundaes, floats and coolers, and of course, the iconic hot fudge cream puff.

The shop also offers the full line of Sanders confectionery products. You can enjoy classic favorites such as honeycomb chips, pecan titans, cherry cordials and non pareils. If you prefer something a little more modern, sea salt caramels, chocolate-covered potato chips and gourmet chocolate bars with a variety of tempting flavors will surely please your palate.

And don't forget about the chocolate Bumpy Cake!

Many of us grew up with Sanders and have valuable memories of visiting the old stores for special occasions, enjoying the traditional birthday colonial buttercream cake (yes, the one with the nuts on its sides) or having their Easter baskets filled with all the usual goodies. Sanders in Wyandotte understands what the Sanders brand represents to people and they strive to provide the "Sanders experience" that customers have come to expect. This shop is doing it right.

Visit Sanders in Wyandotte and you'll understand why this store has become a local favorite. They are located at 3042 Biddle Ave, downtown Wyandotte and can be reached at (734) 284-4800 or on Facebook at www.facebook.com/sanderswyandotte.

It's an experience that you need to have, and their friendly staff is ready to serve you.

ESTATE PLANNING FOR DIGITAL ASSETS

By: Gerald M. Morello, Jr., Esq.

Having an estate plan in place is vital in maximizing your assets, ensuring the efficient transfer of property to your beneficiaries, and giving you peace of mind. However, does your estate plan adequately account for your digital assets? The answer may surprise you.

Recent changes in Michigan law allow you to determine how you would like your digital assets to be accessed and managed, but only if you express such intent in your estate planning or other documents.

WHAT ARE DIGITAL ASSETS, AND WHY ARE THEY IMPORTANT?

"Digital Assets" generally are any electronic information or record in which you have a right or interest. Such assets include, but are not limited to: e-mail, online banking information, business or personal websites, social media, and blogs, just to name a few.

For some clients, these Digital Assets can have significant value. Online rewards, frequent flyer miles, BitCoin, and other similar assets can have a monetary value in and of themselves. Other Digital Assets may have sentimental value (e.g. pictures, correspondence, etc.), or may help your Trustee and/or Personal Representative identify other previously-unknown assets or accounts upon your passing.

THE LAW REGARDING DIGITAL ASSETS.

Both Michigan and Federal law, including the Stored Communications Act and the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, prevent unauthorized access to your digital assets. Under certain circumstances, the repercussions of such unauthorized access can be severe.

To provide a method in which an individual can authorize or restrict authorization to Digital Assets, Michigan passed the Michigan Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act ("FADAA"), effective as of June 2016.

DEFAULT POSITION OF FIDUCIARIES AND DIGITAL ASSETS.

FADAA contains many statutory defaults regarding what a Fiduciary can and cannot do with Digital Assets. These statutory defaults govern unless contrary to the intent expressed in an estate planning or other document.

For other assets that are held by a Digital Custodian (e.g. Google, Facebook, etc.), a Fiduciary may request that the Digital Custodian close a digital account of a user. Express written authorization is typically required to access any Content.

For assets not held by a Digital Custodian (including Digital Assets currently on the internet, personal computer hard drives, CDs, flash drives, and other physical storage media) a Fiduciary with authority over the property of a decedent (either a Personal Representative or a Trustee, depending on how the property is held) has the right to access such Digital Assets of the decedent (including Content) provided that such asset is not subject to a contrary provision in an applicable terms-of-service agreement.

ESTATE PLANNING OPTIONS FOR DIGITAL ASSETS.

FADAA also provides the ability to change the default provisions discussed above, to either further allow or further prohibit access, provided that proper authorization is given by the user. The following documents, in the following order of priority, take precedent in determining the user's intent: (1) an "Online Tool" agreement specific to the digital custodian; (2) a will, trust, power of attorney; then (3) the applicable Digital Custodian's term-of-service agreement. As you can see, the default provisions seem to find an unappealing middle ground that may not match the wishes of individuals who either want to allow, or restrict, access to their Digital Assets after they pass.

I advise speaking with an experienced estate planning attorney to make sure your plan adequately addresses these important, but often overlooked, assets.
